II. How to Apply for Scholarships

Category A and B

If you want to apply for a scholarship category “A” or “B”, please complete the IUJ Online Application (<http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/online/>). Please respond to all questions inputting your answers directly into the online forms. Be sure to complete each section. If it is not possible to apply online in your location, contact the admissions staff at admgsir@iuj.ac.jp for GSIR or admgsim@iuj.ac.jp for GSIM for alternative options.

IUJ will award or make nominations for awards (when possible) to the appropriate scholarships to successful applicants. Applying in the early intakes for these scholarships is highly recommended. Scholarships are competitive.

Category C

For category “C” scholarships, contact the institutes or offices concerned to begin the application process, indicating your interest in attending IUJ.

III. Eligibility and Conditions of Scholarship (A Detailed Description of Each Scholarship)

Category A: IUJ Direct Award Scholarships

S. Nakayama Memorial Scholarship

IUJ provides a limited number of scholarships for newly enrolling international students to support their IUJ studies with the expectation that they will also be active participants in support of the local community and gain a good understanding of the Japanese society. These scholars are expected to develop leadership skills and then contribute to the international society in a leadership role upon graduation. Priority for this scholarship is given to those with excellent academic performances and in financial need.

Conditions: GSIR (IRP, IDP, PMPP), MBA and E-business Management (E-biz)

IUJ-A:	Partial Exemption of Admission Fee: 250,000 yen (out of a total admissions fee of 300,000yen)
	Full Exemption of Tuition:	GSIR: 2,100,000 yen	MBA: 2,200,000 yen	E-biz: 2,550,000 yen
	Stipend: 100,000 yen per month, including an allowance for the dormitory fee
IUJ-B:	Partial Exemption of Admission Fee: 250,000 yen (out of a total admissions fee of 300,000yen)
	Full Exemption of Tuition:	GSIR: 2,100,000 yen	MBA: 2,200,000 yen	E-biz: 2,550,000 yen
IUJ-S:	Half Exemption of Tuition (50% of the full tuition):	GSIR: 1,050,000 yen	MBA: 1,100,000 yen	E-biz: 1,275,000 yen
IUJ-C:	Partial Exemption of Tuition (30% of the full tuition):	GSIR: 630,000 yen	MBA: 660,000 yen	E-biz: 765,000 yen

These are one-year scholarships, but students with commendable records are given a renewal for the second year.

IUJ-A and -B are reserved for highly capable candidates as determined in the screening process.

Note: IUJ requires all S. Nakayama Memorial Scholarship recipients to reside in SD4 area units in their 2nd year if SD1-3 dorm capacity needs arise.

Note: Successful applicants are responsible for paying the balance of the admissions fee (if applicable) by the designated deadline according to the guidelines for successful applicants. Also, they are responsible for paying the tuition balance by the end of the first month of every academic term: not making tuition payments can lead to dismissal.

Category B: IUJ Nominated Scholarships

B-1: Asian Development Bank - Japan Scholarship Program (ADB-JSP)

This scholarship program is established with funds provided by the Japanese Government to the Asian Development Bank (ADB) to offer opportunities for individuals from the Bank’s member countries to undertake further studies at select institutions.

The selected scholar must agree to immediately return to his/her country upon completion of his/her studies at IUJ for at least two years for the purpose of applying his/her enhanced knowledge and skills toward helping accelerate the economic and social development of his/her country.

Preference is given to applicants with lesser financial capacity and female candidates.

IUJ Admissions committee nominates scholars to ADB. At the request of ADB, diversification of nationalities will be considered. Final decisions and selections are made by ADB and informed to IUJ sometime in July. IUJ then notifies the candidates.

Documentation

For full information on required documents after being nominated and their online application form, see the World Bank website at <http://www.worldbank.org/wbi/scholarships> Note information on "Preferred Programs" as IUJ's GSIR programs are in this category.

C-7: Japanese Government (MEXT) with Embassy Recommendation

Note: Requires over 1 year advance application before starting at IUJ

2018 MEXT scholarship applications and awards have already been completed.

For 2019 consideration, contact the Japanese embassy or consulate nearest you for the application form and their schedule. After you pass the preliminary screening conducted by the Embassy or Consulate, then contact IUJ (we are not allowed to help you before passing that first). Please contact IUJ as soon as possible after passing the screening in order to allow enough time to complete the process considering summer holidays. IUJ will ask for TOEFL/IELTS scores and for the MBA candidates the GMAT score, and other supportive documents. More information is at <http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/scholarship/mext/>

Note: IUJ will accept MEXT scholars only for the period needed to complete the degree for which the scholar plans to enroll. An additional 6 months of Japanese language training is not necessary for MEXT scholars who enroll in IUJ.

IV. Scholarships Possible After Starting Class at IUJ

Students may have the opportunity to apply for scholarships provided by the following foundations (examples) after enrolling in IUJ. Most require some Japanese language proficiency, so those in need of financial support are highly encouraged to study Japanese before coming to IUJ, and prepare to fill out scholarship applications in Japanese.

Scholarship Information will be posted on the IUJ bulletin board after your arrival to campus. For updates on these and possibly other applications, see <http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/scholarship/after-arrival/>

- JASSO Honors Scholarship (Monthly Stipend: 48,000 yen): Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) provides a limited number of scholarships for international students who are fully or partially financed privately. Applications are accepted through IUJ with an IUJ recommendation after being enrolled at IUJ. The initial award is through March of your first year at IUJ. A second application process, usually with fewer scholarships available, is required for April to March scholarship renewal. The process is competitive, and largely GPA based.

- IUJ Alumni Sohei Nakayama Memorial Scholarship Type-D (Monthly Stipend: 100,000 yen depending on the year): With fund raising efforts by IUJ Alumni Association, IUJ is able to provide a scholarship to support two awardees in their second year of study (September through June). This scholarship gives priority to those contributing to campus life through their leadership, and those contributing to IUJ-community relations. The scholarship is suspended if the awardee is on academic exchange and not at IUJ.

Eligibility

1. Any nationality and age may apply. Applicants may not be receiving any other stipend (except JASSO) at the time of applying, and may receive only one stipend at a time, in principle.
2. Successful candidates are expected to continue their leadership on campus during their 2nd year, and as alumni to help build a strong IUJ network and global community.

- Other Scholarships expected to be facilitated through IUJ (examples)

Scholarship Name	Eligibility, etc.	Application timing

Other Possible IUJ Supported or Independent Application Scholarships

For further information on scholarship that may or may not come in through IUJ, please see the link below. To be eligible, most require Japanese language applications, though not all. IUJ is not always invited to submit applications or the Foundation may not be making awards that year. IUJ will not have updated information until late Fall Term.

<http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/scholarship/after-arrival/>

Please watch the Office of Student Services information board for scholarships information once you arrive on campus.
