

GUIDELINES FOR RESEARCH STUDENTS

Graduate School of International Management
International University of Japan

RESEARCH STUDENT OF GSIM

A research student of the Graduate School of International Management (GSIM) is one who conducts research work on a specific theme in the GSIM under the supervision of a full-time faculty member of IUJ. A research student can not obtain a degree or receive any credit. A research student must submit a report on research achievements by the time his/her period of enrollment is over. The duration of enrollment is limited to one year but is renewable. A certificate will be available upon request. A research student can use University facilities including the library and dormitories in the same manner as full-time degree students.

ELIGIBILITY

To become a research student, you must satisfy one of the following requirements prior to enrollment.

- A. Having graduated from a university under Japanese educational system.
 - B. Holding a First Degree* from an educational institution outside of the Japanese educational system which is recognized as equivalent scholastically to that of A above, according to either criterion listed below:
 - (1) First Degree from an educational institution in a country where at least 16 years of formal schooling is required for completion of that degree program.
 - (2) First Degree from an educational institution in a country where less than 16 years of formal schooling is required for completion of the First Degree program plus one or more years of subsequent research experience at an academic institution, and minimum age of 22.
- * "First Degree" means a degree which is equivalent in content to a bachelor's degree as issued by Japanese or American institutions upon completion of an undergraduate degree program as a regular student.
-  "An educational institution" means a university, college, or institute chartered by the appropriate government agency or accredited by a relevant organization as a higher educational institution which offers an undergraduate program leading to First Degree.
-  Applicants who fall under category B(2) above must submit an official letter (in English) which attests to the academic research experience, signed by an official of the academic institution where they have been engaged in research.

While there is no restriction as to the applicant's content of undergraduate education, nationality, age, or sex, the applicant's facility in written and spoken English is a vital point to be evaluated.

TIME OF ENROLLMENT AND APPLICATION DEADLINE

Starting date of enrollment is at the beginning of each term. IUJ has adopted a three-term system (10 weeks + 1 examination week per term). Approximate period for each term and application deadlines are as follows:

	Period of each term	Application deadline*
Fall term	October 1 - December 15	June 1
Winter term	January 10 - March 25	October 1
Spring term	April 10 - June 25	December 1

- * Those non-Japanese applicants, who intend to be enrolled for more than one term, must, prior to enrollment, make arrangements to obtain their "college student visa" by themselves. In principle, it takes at least one month to obtain the visa as long as all documents are in order. This may vary according to the country in which the applicant lives. Therefore, they are advised to submit application documents earlier than the above mentioned deadline.
