

Course / Credit Requirements for the JGDP Program

Credit Requirement for Graduation : 40

Categories	Course title	Term	Course Title	Term
Core Required courses: Basic Courses: (13 credits)	Financial Accounting	Fall (2)	Strategic Management	Fall(2)
	International Management	Win. (2)	Corporate Finance	Winter (2)
	Marketing Management	Fall (2)	Corporate Social Responsibility *	Win./Spr.
	Organizational Behavior	Win. (2)
Core Required Courses: Advanced Seminars (6 credits) ^{note 1)}	Advanced Seminar I	Fall
	Advanced Seminar II	Winter
	Advanced Seminar III	Spring
Core Elective Courses: JGDP Courses (At least 12 credits or 16 credits) ^{note 2)}	Japanese Foreign Assistance Policy	Fall	Small to Medium-sized Firms in Japan	Fall
	Japanese Public Finance and Administration	Fall	Japanese Employment Practices and Human Capital Accumulation	Fall
	Modern Japan in the World	Fall	Development of Japanese Industries	Winter
	Postwar Japanese Politics	Fall	Japanese Corporate Finance and Financial System	Winter
	International Relations and Foreign Policy of Japan	Winter	Japanese Style Management and Corporate Governance	Winter
	Japan's Education System	Winter	Business Leaders in Japan	Spring
	Postwar Japanese Economy up to the 1980s	Spring	Monozukuri (manufacturing) Management in Japan	Spring
	Japanese National Security Policy	Win./Spr.
	International Political Economy and Japan's Development Path	Spring
	Core Elective Courses: Basic Discipline Courses (At least 2 credits from each discipline area, 8 credits in total) ^{note 3)}	Political Science (GSIR courses)	Foreign Policy Analysis
Human Rights and Global Justice: Culture, Gender, and Equality				Fall (2)
Managing Public Organizations				Winter (2)
Public Administration				Fall/Spr.
Economics (GSIR courses)		Contemporary International Security Issues: National and Human		Fall/Spr.
		Comparative Government and Politics		Fall/Spr.
		Microeconomics I: Price Theory		Fall (2)
		Macroeconomics I: Income Theory		Fall (2)
		Essentials of Economics		Fall/Win.
Management (GSIM courses)	International Economic Systems and Order		Winter
	Development Policy and Globalization		Winter
	Cost Benefit Analysis		Spring
	Financial Accounting		Fall (2)
	International Management		Winter (2)
Elective Courses ^{note 4)}	Marketing Management		Fall (2)
	Organizational Behavior		Winter (2)
	Strategic Management		Fall (2)
	Operations Management		Winter (2)
	All courses offered by the university (including language courses), except for MBA Core Courses, JGDP Courses, and Basic Discipline Courses can be counted as Elective Courses. No more than 4 language credits can be counted toward graduation.

* 1 credit courses

- Note 1) Although Advanced Seminar I, II and III are core required courses and students are required to obtain 6 credits from them, only 2 of the 6 credits are counted toward graduation for the research report option while 6 credits will be counted for a thesis.
- Note 2) Students must obtain 12 credits, if he/she opted thesis, or 16 credits, if he/she opted Research Report.
- Note 3) You must obtain at least 2 credits from the "Political Science" area, 2 credits from the "Economics" area, and 4 credits from the "Management" area.
- Note 4) Students must obtain 28 credits from any courses offered by GSIM except for language courses.