

Transitional Arrangements for the MBA Class of 2019

GSIM
2018/07/13

Some of the required courses for the MBA class of 2019 will not be offered in the 2018/19 Academic Year. Those who did not take the following courses during the 1st year study are required to take substitutional courses designated as below:

Current Courses which will be cancelled	Credit	Substitutional Courses	Credit
Introduction to Japanese History and Culture <sup>1)</sup>	1	Any one of the JDP* courses <sup>2)</sup> can be the substitution	2
Managerial Economics	2	Essentials of Economics	2
Business Ethics	1	Corporate Social Responsibility	1
Cross-cultural Management <sup>3)</sup>	1	International Management	2

* JDP: Japanese Development Program

Note

- 1) Those who have not taken “Introduction to Japanese History and Culture (IJHC)” are required to take one of the JDP courses, which are 2 credit courses, as a substitution to fulfill their degree requirements. Although the 1 credit from IJHC is uncountable for the degree, 2 credits from the JDP course will be counted toward their degree.
- 2) The following are the JDP courses (all 2-credit courses) which can be the substitution for the IJHC:
- Japan in the world after Meiji restoration (Fall)
  - International political economy surrounding Japan (Spring)
  - International relations and foreign policy of Japan and their impact on development (Winter)
  - Japanese Foreign Assistance Policy and its impact on Development (TBD)
  - Postwar Japanese economy and its international expansion (Winter)
  - Postwar Japanese politics and its impact on development (Fall)
  - Japanese national security policy and its impact on development (Winter / Spring)
  - Japanese public finance and administration and its impact on development (Fall)
  - Japanese education system and its impact on development (Winter)
  - Development of Japanese industries and innovation behind (Spring)
  - Japanese corporate system and Japanese style management and its impact on development (Wi
  - Japanese corporate finance and financial system and its impact on development (Winter)
  - Japanese employment practices and human capital accumulation (Spring)
  - Monozukuri (manufacturing) management in Japan (TBD)
  - Business leaders in Japan and their impact on development (TBD)
  - Small to medium-sized firms in Japan and its impact on development (Fall)
- 3) Those who have not taken the “Cross-cultural Management” are required to take International Management which is a 2-credit course.