

Course Syllabus
Special Summer Program 2020

Course title	Topics on Growth and Inequality
Month of offering the course	July <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> August <input type="checkbox"/>	Way of teaching	F2F <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Online (Zoom) <input type="checkbox"/>
Teaching schedule	Day of the Week: Mon. & Wed.	Time: 14:40-16:10
Names of Instructor (s) (No. of classes per instructor)	Name: Kane, Robert (4) Name: Huang, Chien-Yu (4) (No. of class/instructor)	Total No. of Classes (90min) 8
Course description	This course is to discuss topics related to growth and inequality and its relation with development. We will discuss unified growth theory and explore education's role in structural transformation. We will also discuss the famous book "Capital in the Twenty-First Century" but access to the book is not mandatory.
Texts (readily available for free should be chosen)	Papers to be discussed in the class can be accessed via IUJ library.
Remarks (delivery methods, pre-requisite, class outline, etc.)			