

Course Syllabus
Special Summer Program 2020

Course title	Japanese for Zero Beginners-extended version-
Month of offering the course	July <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> August <input type="checkbox"/>	Way of teaching	F2F <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Online (Zoom) <input type="checkbox"/>
Teaching schedule	Day of the Week: Mon. & Wed. & Fri.	Time: 8:50-10:20
Names of Instructors (No. of classes per instructor)	Takeuchi, Akihiro (3) Kurashina, Sayaka (2) Ishibashi, Mika (2) Nagai, Ayako (1)		Total No. of Classes (90min) 8
Course description	This course is for those who wish to learn basic Japanese as zero-beginners. It is designed to provide students with survival phrases covered in Intensive Japanese Program with additional useful expressions. Alphabet, or Rooma-ji, will be used as the medium and syllabary or hiragana might be introduced. Learning Objectives: This course is for learners to get to know survive and minimum proficiency of the language in such domains as in a job-interview, at a train station, at an eatery or a grocery store, a friendly gathering and classroom. Upon completion of the course, learners will be able to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. introduce oneself</li> <li>2. interact with shop clerks, waiters or waitresses and the people who are engaged in public transportation, Japanese friends and professors</li> </ol> Course Context and Career Relevance: This course will help learners to acquire useful expressions in their daily lives and build a foundation for start learning the language. In terms of career relevance, they will be able to show their willingness to incorporate the culture by introducing themselves in job-interviews. Delivery methods: Interpretation activities, including lectures and explanations, then Practice activities, which include drills, communicative practice in pairs/groups are the basic methods. The textbook, the audio-visual materials and apps for syllabary writing will be used in both the activities. Assessment: No assessment Credit: None Prerequisite: None
Texts (readily available for free should be chosen)	Textbook of Japanese for Zero Beginners in 2020 (PDF version)

1st 7/6 Mon. Prof. Takeuchi	Can-Do-Statement(hence CDS): After this class, you will be able to interact with teachers, to count numbers from 0 to 10 and acquire learning strategies to learn hiragana (option) ●Phonetics Classroom Expressions Greetings, Useful expressions ●0-10 ●hiragana practice
2nd 7/8 Wed. Prof. Takeuchi	CDS: After this class, you will be able to introduce yourselves and count 10~99 ●Lesson 1 Dialogue 1,2 ●10-99 (hiragana prac)
3rd 7/10 Fri. Prof. Kurashina	CDS: After this class, you will be able to ask questions and reply and count 100-999 ●Lesson 1 Dialogue 3 ●100-999 (hiragana prac)
4th 7/13 Mon. Prof. Kurashina	CDS: be able to ask Yes-No questions and reply, and count 1000-9999 ●Lesson 2 meeting people Q&A Grammar 1 ~ 2 a. b., Dialogue 1 ●1000-9999 (hiragana prac)
5th 7/15 Wed. Prof. Nagai	CDS: be able to ask WH-questions and reply and count 10000-100000 ●Lesson 3 Grammar 1&2 Dialogue 1&2 ●10000~100000 (hiragana prac)
6th 7/17 Fri. Prof. Ishibashi	CDS: be able to do shopping ●Lesson 4 Grammar 1,2 &3 Dialogue 1 (Additional Sentence patterns/expressions in p.25) (hiragana prac)
7th 7/20 Mon. Prof. Ishibashi	CDS: be able to order foods at a restaurant ●Lesson 4 Grammar 1,2 &3 Dialogue 2 Additional Sentence patterns/expressions p.25) Additional dialogs 2. p.25 (hiragana prac)
8th 7/22 Wed. Prof. Takeuchi	CDS: be able to avoid food and to use supplementary expressions ●Lesson 5 Grammar 1,2&3 Dialogue1 supplementary vocabulary on p.24 ●Survival Japanese Expressions IUJshop&bus pp.28-31 (hiragana prac)