

Special Summer Program 2020: Special Research Seminar

Your Name: Wenkai Li

Joint Presentation and Discussion
Description	The topics covered under this seminar will be, in general, on Operations Management and Supply Chain Management. Students will bring specific research topics that they are interested in, based on their past working experiences. The instructor will discuss and provide advices on: <ul style="list-style-type: none">i). How to identify research topics from the situation of a particular company or an organization.ii). How to conduct literature review and what kind of books/articles to read.iii). How to prepare survey questions and collect data during the summer break.iv). Other issues related to students' research. The objectives of a series of activities conducted under this seminar are to help students prepare their research reports or theses with professionally acceptable quality.