

Special Summer Program 2020: Special Research Seminar

Your Name: Shugo Shinohara

Joint Presentation and Discussion
Description	I will offer joint research seminars where I, PhD students, and master graduates will present their submitted or published papers. This seminar is open to all IUJ students. The students are expected to join discussion after each presentation and learn how to conduct policy research. The seminars will be held around three times in July.