

Course Registration Example (1st year IRP)

International Relations Program <MA in International Relations>

You must take at least 2 credits and no more than 12 credits in each term. Language and seminar courses are not included in this maximum/minimum number of credits. (Advanced Seminar courses will start from Spring 2022 term.)

Term	Fall 2021 term		Winter 2022 term		Spring 2022 term
Categories	Course	Credits	Course	Credits	Course	Credits
Core Required Courses  Note 1)	Foreign Policy Analysis	2	International Economic Systems and Order	2	Comparative Government and Politics	2
	History of International Relations	2	International Organization	2	International Security in a Digitized World (Fall or Spring)	2
	Human Rights and Global Justice: Cultures, Gender, and Equality	2	International Political Economy	2	Advanced Seminar I	2
	International Politics	2
	International Security in a Digitized World (Fall or Spring)	2
	Total (Core Required Courses only)	8~10	Total (Core Required Courses only)	6	Total (Core Required Courses only)	4~6
Core Elective / Elective Courses	You can take some core elective/ elective courses if you want. Note 2)	0~2	You can take some core elective/ elective courses if you want. Note 2)	0~6	You can take some core elective/ elective courses if you want. Note 2)	0~6
Total credits (per term)	Total (Core Required + Others)	8~12	Total (Core Required + Others)	6~12	Total (Core Required + Others)	4~12

Note 1) 8 courses out of 9 core required courses must be taken in the first year. Advanced Seminar I is mandatory to take in Spring 2022 term.

Note 2) Elective courses are all the courses offered by the university(including language courses). However, some elective courses are advanced courses, and only who meet the pre-requisite of the course can register.