

INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF JAPAN
Graduate School of International Relations

Academic Year: 2013/2014

Term: Spring

Course	Course code ADC5015	Course title Public Private Partnership
Name of Instructor	Asami Takagi/Jun Arakawa		Credit Number:
Instructor's contact Information	Office#	Office Hours	E-mail: asamimiel@gmail.com
Class Schedule Day / Time	Thursday

Course Description: The course is composed of (1) lectures on the theories, the practices and cases in PPP, (2) student presentations and (3) discussions. For (2), students are required to provide a 15-minute presentation on an actual PPP example in his/her own country.
Learning Objectives: Students will learn theories and practices of cooperation between public and private sectors in delivering public services. Also, they will find actual PPP examples in their own country through researches for a presentation required in the class and the term paper.
Career Relevance: PPP is an unavoidable aspect in public sector today. Students would be able to increase their options in delivering public services when they return to their works. For those who have a background with private sector, the course would help to think about business opportunities with public sector.
Course Context or Rationalization:
Delivery Methods: Lecturing, case studies, student presentations and discussions
Assessment: Attendance (10%), active participation in discussions (10%), a presentation (20%) and a term-paper (60%)
Prerequisite: None
Textbook(s)	Required: E. S. Savas, "Privatization and Public-Private Partnerships" Reference books/Journal Articles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carsten Greve, "Contracting for Public Services" • Stephen P. Osborne, "The New Public Governance?: Emerging Perspectives on the Theory and Practice of Public Governance" • Victor Pestoff, "Co-production: The Third Sector and the Delivery of Public Service" • Pauline Rosenau, "Public-Private Policy Partnerships"
Class Outline	1. Introduction / Public service delivery and roles of government

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Recent trend of reforms on public service delivery 3. PPP practice (1): Outsourcing and reforms in public procurement 4. PPP practice (2): Competition between public and private 5. PPP practice (3): Shared service 6. Case study I 7. PPP practice (4): Private finance initiative (PFI) 8. PPP practice (5): Private finance initiative (PFI) continued 9. Case study II 10. PPP practice (6): Agency and public corporations 11. PPP practice (7): Privatization 12. Case study III 13. PPP practice (8): NPOs and social businesses 14. Case study IV 15. PPP practice (9): Deregulation – other forms of PPP 16. Insourcing 17. PPP in developing countries 18. Results of PPP / Advantages and disadvantages Issues for implementation 19. Strategies and governance 20. Challenges and future directions
Others (if any)	