

ADC 6990 Global Issues: UNU Global Seminar
Professor Maung Aung Myoe
Fall Term 2013

Course Description

This seminar course examines selected issues in international relations by participating in the UNU Global Seminar (Shonan Session) sponsored by the United Nations University and organized by other cooperating universities including IUJ. Each year, we invite UN officials, specialists and scholars, and have intensive discussions with them and other participants in both English and Japanese.

Credit requirement and Assessment

The IUJ students who want to obtain a credit need to participate in and complete the UNU Global Seminar, to register for this course, and to write a report on the topic under discussion at the seminar before the end of the fall term. Assessment is based on the participation at the seminar and the report.

Lecture Schedule

As to the schedule and application requirement for the UNU Global Seminar 2013, please check the brochure and the application information provided separately. The theme for the 2013 UNU Global seminar is “New Global Energy Mix for Sustainable Future” and the seminar will be held from 2nd to 5th September 2013.
