Course Description:

A series of Japanese courses comprising Elementary 1 through Elementary 3 gives students structural knowledge of the language and ability to understand and utilize sentences and expressions used in daily life.

Learning Objectives:

The course objectives of Elementary 3 are the following:

1. To be able to carry out conversations in several specific situations (e.g.) conditions, what one has heard from someone else, what one must do, must not do,
2. To be able to write and read about 100 kanji (Total from Elementary 1 and 2: 300)

In order to achieve the above objectives, we will do the following things:

1. To learn two styles of verb: です・ます style and plain style.
2. Of the four language skills, the development of speaking and listening will be emphasized, though reading and writing will also be cultivated.

Delivery Methods:

1. Of the four language skills, the development of speaking and listening will be emphasized, though reading and writing will also be cultivated.
2. There are lots of group activities.
