

Illegal Items in Japan

Things you should not bring, possess, or have sent to you while in Japan

Be SURE to check with the nearest Japanese Embassy regarding products you have any concerns about before you come to Japan

Source: US Embassy in Japan website, and other

Banned and Illegal Items: Examples ONLY

- Heroin, cocaine, MDMA, opium, cannabis, stimulants, psychotropic substances, and other narcotic drugs
 - > ANYthing that could be used to MAKE these drugs.
 - Coca leaves, or other tea leaves that can be used in drug making
 - any seeds that can grow related plants,
- Products that contain stimulants (even over the counter drugs)
 - > Pseudoephedrine,
 - Check inhalers and some allergy and sinus medications, such as Actifed, Sudafed, and Vicks inhalers,
 - > Codeine
 - Check Tylenol products, similar generic products, and cough syrups
- Prozac and Viagra
- Anything that could be used to make a chemical weapon

What CAN be Accepted

- Up to a two-months' supply of allowable over-the-counter medication and up to a four-months' supply of allowable vitamins can be brought into Japan duty-free.
- Generally, up to one month's supply of allowable prescription medicine can be brought into Japan.
 - > Travelers must bring a copy of their doctor's prescription as well as a letter stating the purpose of the drug.
 - > Travelers who must carry more than one month's supply (except prohibited drugs and controlled drugs), or are carrying syringes (pumps), are required to obtain a so-called "Yakkan Shoumei", or an import certificate in advance,

Source: US Embassy in Japan website, and other

About Dappo Herb

- ⦿ EXTREMELY dangers to your health
- ⦿ Death's have occurred
- ⦿ Growing problem in Japan
- ⦿ IUJ does not allow them on campus
 - > VERY strict penalties, following the student hand book will be enforced